Oh! The train job! Remember that one?

Le nerf d'entre eux! To design their train after a giant snake and to steal my precious wand?

GLUG!

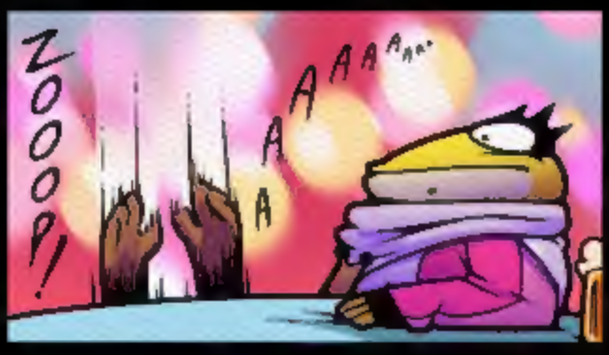
Oho~ how their faces must have looked. . . when I presto-chango'd the entire train into a real one!

Well that's terrifying! ~hic~ Evan you didn't tell me you did HEISTS!

Ah Glisser's being dramatic. It was just a paid job to steal from bad people!

Hey, we can't have a magician at a party without performing some magic. Show us the good stuff!

How about this one, mon petit lapin. C'est un classique!



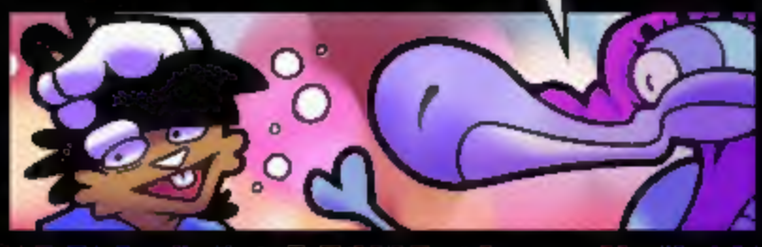
Voila! Un lapin d'un chapeau!

Yanno, while I was slamming down drinks I was thinking. Not a good combo while drinking.

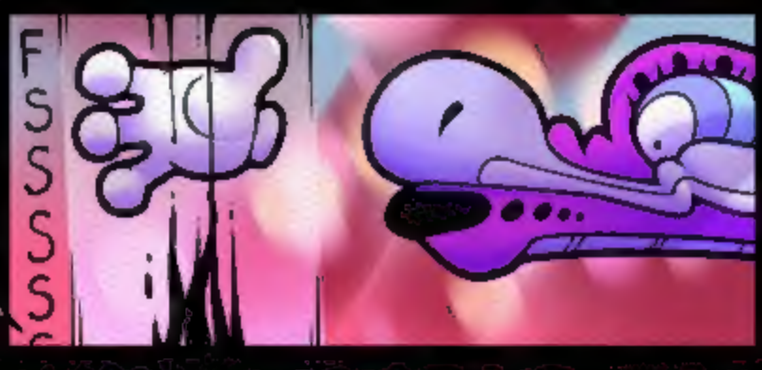
So.

Want to see a trick I can do, too?

But of course, Monsieur!



Presto~ Chango!



It takes too much energy to constantly hide who I am!
~hic~ Why bother!?
This guy. This lovely toon. He knew I was human from the start and he was willing to help me out.
What a kind dork in a city of violent toons!
You know, being a human ain't that bad. Don't get why some of you freak out.
You should try it sometime!

I still owe ya for saving me this morning. Alcohol's talking here... but I always wanted to kiss a toon! Don't worry, Evan, if you turn back into a human it just means we were meant to be!
SMOOOOOOCH
Turn... human?
POOF!
